JOHN BRADSHAW

November 2021

Dear friend in ministry,

What we both want to see are more souls in the kingdom of heaven. That's why It Is Written exists. In spite of the challenges being faced by society in these times, It Is Written has remained focused on our core mission. Nothing has distracted us from evangelism, from proclaiming the three angels' messages. At a time when the devil has sought to distract God's people, you have kept us on the front lines of ministry. And God has worked powerfully as a result.

Nothing has distracted us from evangelism, from proclaiming the three angels' messages.

An experience during recent It Is Written evangelistic meetings reinforced our commitment to sharing the whole message of the Bible. During Escrito Está evangelistic meetings in Mexico City, a family was visited by the pastor of the church. When the pastor spoke to the man about his wife and two teenage children joining the church, he said, "Absolutely not!" He was concerned that this church would “be just like every other church.” He said, “At the right time we will decide which church we will be part of, because everyone is preaching the same thing!”

He listened to the meetings from his home via the internet. And he noticed that this preaching was different. Distinctive truths were being presented, all of them Christ-centered. He learned about the law of God, the state of the dead, the second coming of Jesus, and more. On Friday evening, the Holy Spirit touched his heart. The next day, he and his family came to church to be baptized. He said, “This is not just another church. This is the remnant, and I want to belong to this family.” And he made an interesting request. He said, “I want to be the first one to be baptized, so that I can share my testimony with others.” This dear man demonstrated that the power is in the message for this hour. We still believe that when we present the whole message of the Bible, God does great things.

*No one was happier than the devil when COVID shut down the work of God.
But COVID didn't silence It Is Written.*

We very recently concluded Revelation Today: The Great Reset. Presented in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and broadcast around the world, hundreds of churches joined with us in sharing the everlasting gospel. Our full-time channel, It Is Written TV, aired the messages to the entire world. People reached out to us from around the globe, telling us how blessed they were by this series. Your support now will ensure we can tell many, many more stories like this.

Hundreds were able to view Pastor Bradshaw and the Revelation Today: The Great Reset series on It Is Written TV, Roku, and other outlets.

Many attended Revelation Today: The Great Reset live in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

In Chattanooga, we met a man I'll call Brian. A successful businessman, Brian sensed there was something more to Christianity than he had been experiencing. He began to search for truth, praying earnestly that God would lead him. He received a flier for Revelation Today: The Great Reset and came to the meetings. As we spoke in the parking lot, tears filled his eyes as he shared that his wife had passed away a year ago. But with a heart filled with the love of Jesus, Brian has discovered peace and confidence in Him. Brian rededicated his life to Jesus, chose to keep all of the commandments of God, and made a decision to be baptized. Brian said to me, "This is what I've been looking for." Revelation Today: The Great Reset reached thousands of people like Brian in dozens of countries worldwide and will continue to do so until Jesus comes. Your support has made that possible.

Sharing the gospel is why It Is Written exists. As we share, the Spirit of God works on hearts and minds and eternal decisions are made for Jesus. No one was happier than the devil when COVID shut down the work of God. But COVID didn't silence It Is Written. I'm grateful that you have enabled us to share the gospel with the world. Your support of It Is Written now will help us continue to introduce people around the world to the Savior, Jesus.

As I write this message to you, it is George Vandeman's birthday. Were he alive today, he would be turning 105. When Pastor Vandeman founded It Is Written, he had no idea what God would do with a ministry focused 100 percent on evangelism. Since the genesis of It Is Written the faithful support of people like you has enabled us to introduce multitudes to faith in Jesus. Over the next year, the evangelistic mission of It Is Written will not slow down. We will be conducting major evangelistic outreaches here at home as well as internationally. It Is Written TV is broadcasting the message to the world. The feedback we receive on a daily basis tells us the message is getting through. People are coming to Christ because of your support of It Is Written.

As you consider your year-end giving, thank you for remembering It Is Written. Your gift to It Is Written this month is an investment, yielding the greatest returns you could imagine. Your prayers and your financial support of It Is Written will expand the kingdom of God. You can know that your generosity will lead to more people than ever before hearing the final gospel message to go to the world. It is the best investment you could ever make.

May God bless and keep you. Thank you for your continued prayers. And thank you so much for your support of It Is Written.

P.S. In the midst of the challenges facing this world, evangelism is going forward, and souls are being won. Brian told me, “This is what I’ve been looking for.” Another man said, “This is not just another church,” as he and his family surrendered their hearts to Jesus. Your support of It Is Written is changing lives for eternity. Please help us share the three angels’ messages with more people through public, personal, and media evangelism. We want to continue to win souls for Christ and share the everlasting gospel with the world!
