Dear Partner in ministry,

When Diane went back to church after being away for more than twenty years, her husband was unimpressed. But not long after accepting her invitation to attend with her, an It Is Written evangelistic series came to the church.

Although Dan didn't attend, he did hear the evangelist preach on two Sabbath mornings, and was deeply impressed by the biblical nature of the messages. He chose to attend the follow-up studies led by the local pastor, and although he was initially resistant to what he was learning, every time he went to the Bible to prove the pastor wrong, he found the teachings were accurate, and his faith was strengthened.

Dan began watching
It Is Written TV.

presenter, Pastor
Mark Finley.

When Dan found out the evangelist hosted a television program, Dan began watching Sabbath School on It Is Written TV.

Enjoying the Sabbath School programs hosted by the evangelist—Eric Flickinger from It Is Written—Dan began to watch Eric's Which Way America prophecy series. He watched all twenty-one episodes, and surrendered his life to Jesus.

But when his 18-year-old daughter found out her dad was connecting with the church, she was dismissive, telling her father that she thought he was crazy. So Dan invited her to watch Which Way America, assuring her that she would learn more about the Bible than she had ever learned before. As Amy had been questioning her own faith, she figured she had nothing to lose by watching. Before long, Amy had also watched the entire Which Way America series, and as a result, her life was transformed.

Both father and daughter are now church members, following in the footsteps of Jesus. And Amy has begun a Bible club for students on the campus of the public university she attends!

Pastor Eric Flickinger presents the Which Way America series.

Both Dan and his daughter Amy surrendered their lives to Jesus as a result of It Is Written evangelism.

“Dan and Amy are prime examples of the impact It Is Written has on the lives of people, and on churches like ours.”

This is the power of public evangelism. An invitation accepted, an It Is Written evangelistic series conducted, media evangelism via Sabbath School and Which Way America, baptisms, and now mission work as new Christians energized by the gospel seek to share their faith with others.

Pastor Rob Putt of the Plymouth-Sorrento church in Florida, stated that the evangelistic meetings “brought a renewed sense of mission to our already mission-focused church family. Our church has received more than 600 Bible study interests, providing an incredible opportunity to connect with our community and share the Everlasting Gospel.” Pastor Putt reports that dozens of church members “are now actively involved in outreach through Bible studies. We’ve watched our church grow—not just in numbers, but in the Spirit.” He added, “Dan and Amy are prime examples of the impact It Is Written has on the lives of people, and on churches like ours.”

These miracles of grace occurred because of your support of the ministry of It Is Written. These are stars in YOUR crown. And as we look forward to Revelation Today: Hope For Humanity, starting in Baltimore next month, I am certain that more Dans and more Amys will yield their lives to the Creator of the universe.

More than 200 churches are participating directly in the Revelation Today series in Baltimore. The meetings, presented by Dr. Alex Bryant, president of the North American Division, and myself, begin October 3 in Towson, MD, just outside Baltimore. The entire series will be aired on It Is Written TV and other channels, making it available to a global audience.

Your support today will help It Is Written with the considerable costs of conducting and airing the Revelation Today: Hope For Humanity series. Pastor Robert Costa will be conducting meetings in Spanish in the Baltimore area. Prior to the series, archaeologist, Dr. Michael Hasel will be holding a three-night archaeology series, exploring ancient Egypt, ancient Israel and the Middle East, demonstrating that the Bible is reliable and trustworthy. And a free medical, dental and vision clinic will be held, in association with our friends from AMEN. Many volunteers will join us in Baltimore to provide essential services, introducing people to the love of Christ.

The expenses associated with this series are considerable. But the expenses are an investment in souls for the kingdom of heaven. People all across Baltimore, the United States, and around the world will hear the Three Angels' Messages, encounter the gospel, and have the opportunity to yield their lives to Jesus.

“The delivery of the truth
stirred me.”

Just as Dan and Amy responded, many more people will respond to the invitation to follow Jesus. Amy was a teenaged college student attending a public university, and God reached her heart. Already she is a missionary to her generation!

After Dan had watched the It Is Written series, he said, “The delivery of the truth stirred me.”

I want to see these stories repeated, and I am encouraged because I know you do too. Your generous gift today will go to the front lines of evangelistic outreach, and God will grow His kingdom through your burden for souls and your willingness to invest in the salvation of others.

Thank you for what you are doing to share Jesus with the world. Please pray for Revelation Today: Hope For Humanity. As we join together in this work, God will do great things.

May God bless and keep you.

Sincerely,

Pastor John Bradshaw

P.S. Evangelism continues to win people to faith in Christ. In just a few weeks, major meetings begin in Baltimore, MD, that will connect people from across Baltimore and around the world with the Christ of the Bible. Dan connected with the saving message of the Bible through It Is Written evangelism and surrendered his life to Jesus in baptism. His skeptical daughter not only embraced the everlasting gospel, but has also become a missionary on a secular college campus. Your support of It Is Written evangelism will enable more miracles of grace!
