Dear Partner in ministry,

When Joanna could no longer find It Is Written on television, she wasn't sure what she would do. She had watched It Is Written every week. The program blessed her and fed her spiritually. Although Joanna's relationship with Jesus was in its infancy, she loved God and enjoyed learning more about Him.

Some time later, she was thrilled to find It Is Written again. After calling to request a free offer, Joanna was connected with an It Is Written representative who lived near her home. They began studying the Bible together regularly. Joanna devoured the It Is Written Bible Study Guides, began attending church, and, before long, was baptized. Joanna says gratefully, "It Is Written saved my life!"

We know that it was God who saved Joanna's life, but He used It Is Written to reach her heart. First, the weekly It Is Written television program. Then, the It Is Written Bible Study Guides. But there was something else God used. Or rather, someone. God used a trained Bible worker to meet with Joanna and encourage her in her spiritual growth.

This is why It Is Written places so much emphasis on training people how to share their faith. While anyone at all can share Jesus, intentional, careful training transforms a person into a skilled soul winner.

SALT students share their personal testimonies and inspirational experiences during the It Is Written Partnership event in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Douglas Na'a, the SALT program director, reports on the impact of SALT during an It Is Written Partnership event.

In preparation for a major evangelistic outreach in Colombia, South America, later this year, It Is Written trained and equipped many lay people to give Bible studies. One man especially took the training to heart. As incredible as it sounds—even before the meetings in Bogota take place in November—he has led 91 people to decide for Jesus and be baptized!

This is why It Is Written invests in our annual ReCharge¹ public evangelism and church growth retreat. It is why we train people all around the world to share their faith. And it is why It Is Written provides intensive evangelism training to dozens of people every year through our evangelism training school, SALT.

SALT—Soul-winning And Leadership Training—is held annually in partnership with Southern Adventist University. This year's SALT class is our largest ever, a collection of remarkable people with exciting stories to tell. John quit his job and moved two time zones to pursue evangelism training. In the past, businessmen and women have put their professional careers on hold in order to become skilled disciple makers. And hundreds of college students have found God's purpose for their lives at SALT.

Andrew wasn't sure what his major would be when he enrolled in SALT. By the time SALT was over, Andrew knew God was calling him to be a pastor. As I write this, Pastor Andrew is conducting an evangelistic meeting in one of his churches. Numerous others have had the same experience. Those who have chosen a career in other fields have done so fully prepared to share Jesus in the workplace. Others, such as Fiona and Dan, finished the SALT program before returning to be SALT mentors, completing the program four years in a row! Because of SALT, Fiona, Dan, and many others have conducted as many as six evangelistic series before graduating from college. This is what preparing the next generation of soul winners looks like!

And I'm excited to let you know that SALT is expanding. Next year, a new SALT program will begin on the campus of Union Adventist University, making it easier for even more people to become disciple makers for Jesus in earth's last days.

Your support of It Is Written this month will provide for our SALT programs on two college campuses, as well as enable ReCharge and other It Is Written evangelism training events to take place. Everything we do at It Is Written is made possible through your gifts. Our evangelism team knows that our influence is multiplied as we train others to do what we do. Evangelism training—the creation of disciple makers—will ensure the gospel will go further faster, and, as a result, many more people around the world will know Jesus as their Savior.

Would you prayerfully consider investing in exponential discipleship growth? As I write this, I'm in the Middle East, where I've just witnessed a miracle of faith.

An unlikely disciple of Jesus came to faith in Christ because an It Is Written Bible worker patiently shared the It Is Written Bible Study Guides. Gently guiding this searching soul, he had the privilege to witness a dramatic conversion, and I experienced the joy of seeing one of Jesus' precious children make a bold stand for Him. The lost was found and is now being equipped to share Jesus with others.

By the time SALT was over, Andrew knew God was calling him to be a pastor.

Your investment in evangelism training is an investment in multiplication evangelism. SALT—now in its fifteenth year—has trained hundreds, including present-day pastors, Bible workers, college professors, and church leaders. ReCharge continues to breathe new life into churches. Around the world, It Is Written trains people to effectively share their faith. SALT graduates have held hundreds of evangelistic meetings and witnessed countless baptisms. And now, SALT is expanding to the campus of another university.

Your donation this month will train committed men and women to win souls to Christ. Your investment in the proclamation of the three angels' messages will create disciple makers.

Thank you for investing in those who will reach the lost—and teach others to do the same.

May God bless and keep you,

P.S. Teaching people to share their faith with others is evangelism multiplied. After 15 years, SALT has proven so successful that we're beginning a second SALT program. It Is Written-trained Bible instructors continue to lead people to faith in Jesus. One man has led 91 people to baptism even before our evangelistic meetings begin! Thank you for your investment in creating disciple makers and powerfully influencing the advance of the gospel.
